

The do not call law is just the greatest thing ever. Now if you could only close down Teterboro airport my fondest dreams will be realized. I think all of my neighbors feel the same.